Major General Trautvetter, who is appointed Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sweden to the Court of Poland, arrived here on the 28th Inſtant, and ſet out on the 30th to continue his Journey to Warſaw; having had ſeveral Conferences with the Pruſſian Miniſters during his Stay here. The King of Pruſſia dined Yeſterday at Magdebourg, and arrived the ſame Evening at Potſdam: His Majeſty goes this Afternoon to Wuſterhauſen, where he deſigns to paſs three or four Days. The Queen of Pruſſia's Journey to Hanover is talked of as certain: And 'tis believed her Majeſty will ſet out towards the End of next Month.

Stockholm, Aug. 20. Vice Admiral Sioblad having been accuſed of ſome Misbehaviour in the late Action with the Muſcovite Gallies, is come hither to give an Account of and juſtify his Conduct. On the 15th Inſtant the King ſigned a new Inſtrument of Ratification of the Peace with Denmark, in the Form deſired by that Court, and the ſame Evening that Inſtrument was ſent away by an Expreſs to Copenhagen, to be there exchanged. Laſt Night Baron Sparre his Swediſh Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary to the King of Great Britain, ſet out for Copenhagen, whence he will forthwith proceed to Hanover. On the 26th the King and the Prince of Heſſe his Brother will ſet out for the Palace of Grypſholm, from whence after two or three Days Stay they will go on to Kongſohr, and continue there ſix or eight Days, and then the Prince will proceed with Count Taube for Germany. The Queen will continue at Carlberg till the King's Return. We have yet no further Account of any Motions of the Fleet of Muſcovite Gallies; but we are no longer in Apprehenſion of their making an Attempt upon Gaſle, the Troops under General Hamilton's Command being lately reinforced to 8000 Men. Rear Admiral Hoſier is returned with his Squadron to the Dahlers.

Hague, Sept. 13. Yeſterday the States of Holland aſſembled, and unanimouſly elected M. Hoornbeek Great Penſionary in the Room of M. Heinſius deceaſed: But M. Starenberg, the firſt in the College of the Nobles, was at the ſame Time declared Keeper of the Great Seal and Preſident of the Fiefs. Sir George Byng is daily expected here from Hanover in his Way to England: A Yacht is ordered to wait for him. The Earl of Sunderland will proceed from hence on his Journey to Hanover, on the 15th Inſtant.
